I am an interdisciplinary artist (producer, director, writer, singer, actor), currently a Professor at the University of Michigan, with a BFA in Musical Theatre from the prestigious College Conservatory of Music at the University of Cincinnati.

Martin Scorsese directed me in HBO's, Vinyl, I've starred in six Broadway shows opposite several Tony Award winners and principally sung and worked with Stephen Sondheim in our famed Lincoln Center, Carnegie Hall and Kennedy Center venues. I have appeared in major film & television productions including the upcoming Jersey Boys Live, (starring Nick Jonas), NBC's The Good Fight, Law & Order, Smokey Joe's Café and Jane Eyre.

I have co-produced and recorded a series of solo albums at Abbey Road Studios and in NYC, produced and starred in feature films, Off-Broadway, directed, written and composed full-scale musicals, concerts and cabaret.

My philosophy is to say, "yes" to everything. I believe art and storytelling connects us and demands we live more consciously and mindfully. I aim to awaken and unlock every artist's potential in an equitable manner, and I encourage healthy habits for a lasting career and a well-balanced life.

I live outside of Ann Arbor, Michigan with my wife, Director and Professor Jessica Boevers Bogart, and our two teenage boys.
